100 YEARS OF HISTORY

We have been farming with devotion for 5 generations vines of the three native local varieties only: Dolcetto, Barbera and mostly Nebbiolo to produce DOC and DOCG wines which exalt the typicity, the tradition and the history of our hills. Hills which are world-renowned for their uniqueness and have officially been recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage site.

corte Figaretto

Corte Figaretto is a family-run farm in the heart of Valpantena, a valley situated north of Verona. In this southernly exposed valley lie its precious vineyards, siutable for the production of great red wines. The essentially Mediterranean climate, characterised by contained rainfall, is further tempered in the summer months by the evening breezes originating from the Lessinia mountains

SASSICAIA
TENUTA SAN GUIDO

Tenuta San Guido is the result of a very long tradition and of an ethical message handed down from generation to generation. Over the years, the dedication and commitment to the company's activities have led to many successes: Sassicaia, in the wine sector, the Razza Dormello Olgiata, in the breeding of thoroughbred horses and the Rifugio Faunistico Padule di Bolgheri, for the protection of nature and wildlife.

Maestri in Primitivo

Masters in Primitivo since 1932

Thus began the great ability to insert Primitivo into the markets of Italy and the world, when in 1932 in Manduria, the Consorzio Produttori Vini was founded. The design of a project that proved to be important: the concentration of the grapes of those lands in an efficient and adequate structure for winemaking and marketing.
